

Reflection Graphic Organizer

Purpose:

Use this organizer to reflect on the feedback you received during the peer review process and to think critically about your design choices, the changes you plan to make, and what you have learned through this project.

Section 1: Analyzing Feedback

1. Specific Feedback Received

What specific feedback did you receive from your peers? How did they evaluate your design in terms of functionality, stability, aesthetics, and creativity?

Feedback Area	Feedback	My Thoughts
Functionality
Stability
Aesthetics
Creativity

Section 2: Planning Changes

2. Planned Changes to Design

Based on the feedback you received, what changes will you make to your design? How do you think these changes will improve the final product?

Feedback Area	Planned Change	Reason for Change
Functionality
Stability
Aesthetics
Creativity

Section 3: Reflecting on the Design Process

3. Insights Gained from Peer Review

How did the peer review process help you see your design differently? What new perspectives did you gain, and how did they influence your thinking?

Insight	How It Changed My Perspective

Section 4: Learning and Growth

4. Lessons Learned

What have you learned about design through this project? Consider the skills you've developed, the challenges you've overcome, and how you've grown as a designer.

Lesson Learned	How I Will Apply This in the Future

Section 5: Final Thoughts

5. Overall Reflection

Reflect on your overall experience with this project. How do you feel about your final design? What would you do differently if you had more time or resources?